

uzannepenn.com is the branded web site for “Dr. Sue.”

There she remains dedicated to empowering and motivating others. Her books (The Pink Corner Office, published by Xlibris, 2006) and writings focus on financial wellness and how to achieve the most out of life, family, and the workplace.

For 34 years Dr. Sue, a successful entrepreneur, has been Chairman and Managing Director of MTS Tax Solutions and for 25 years MFS WealthCare.

In 2012, Dr. Penn re-launched the Center for Entrepreneurial Development in Chicago. The center provides services nationally and focuses on entrepreneurial training, leadership and business coaching.

In 2012 Dr. Penn received the Woman of Power in Business Award by the Minority Enterprise Advocate Magazine in Washington, D.C. She stated that “being recognized at this prestigious event was one of the most wonderful moments of my career”. The event honored fifty women entrepreneurs from across the globe.

Also during 2012 Dr. Penn was inducted in the Who’s Who in Black Chicago publication. She was acknowledged for her professional achievements as one of Chicago’s most trusted professionals at a lavish event held in the grand lobby of the Merchandise Mart.

Suzanne has held seats on various boards in business as well as the community at large. Those seats were to Chicago’s Cosmopolitan Chamber of Commerce, the National Black MBA Association, the Chicago YWCA and Christian Vision Center, a shelter for abused women.

Since 2003 Dr. Penn has served on the President’s Council and the Board of Visitors for the

*Biography of
Dr. Sue*

Suzanne Penn, MBA, Ph.D.
Author, Entrepreneur

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. There she assist in providing scholarships for high achieving, African-American students.

Since 2004 Dr. Penn has served as the Founder and President of Christian Financial Ministries, a faith-based organization that focuses on providing training and support for pastors, church administrators, and church congregations in the areas of financial literacy.

Dr. Penn is the recipient of numerous awards such as, The 2009 Chicago Defender Women of Excellence Award, The 2010 Mothers Informing Mothers’ Phenomenal Woman Award and The New Orleans Center for Successful Living’s - Spirit of Greatness Award. The City of New Orleans, United States Senator Mary L. Landrieu and the City Council of New Orleans have all recognized her achievements.

She has been featured in Newsweek, Today’s Chicago Woman, Crain’s Chicago Business the Chicago Tribune, Sun-Times, Defender and N’Digo newspapers.

She is a graduate with honors of the University of Illinois-Chicago, she holds an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business, and a Ph.D. in Business Management from Kennedy-Western University. Mrs. Penn is married to Algernon H. Penn, President of Penn Consulting Group. Together they have three adult children.

